E-12 EDUCATION BILL

Special Education Funding – Both Offers

House and Senate both had offers to increase Special Education Cross Subsidy Aid:

- House final offer: Increase the percentage from 6.43% to 37.746% for FY23 and 40.49% for FY24 later years ($196M in FY23, and $465M in FY24/25)
- Senate final offer: Increase the percentage from 6.43% to approximately 40% for FY23 and later years ($261M in FY23, and $666M in FY24/25)
- Session
 - Governor: would have increased the percentage to 12.14% (hold to FY19 level)
 - House: would have increased the percentage to 55.895% for FY23 and 56.9405% for FY24 and later years, and funded 90/10 payment shift
 - Senate: No comparable provision

E-12 EDUCATION BILL

School Nutrition Programs – House Offer

Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) Program (House offer)

- Requires eligible CEP sites to participate in the program and fully funds school meals for all participating sites
- Creates a compensatory revenue hold harmless for FY23 and later years for participating CEP sites to mitigate the potential underreporting of compensatory students. Calculated using the greater of:
 - the preceding fall student counts;
 - the fall 2019 student counts; or
 - the fall student counts in the year preceding the sites entry or renewal in the CEP program
- Session
 - Governor: funded universal meals and CEP
 - House: funded CEP
 - Senate: no comparable provision

E-12 EDUCATION BILL

Unemployment Insurance/CTE Levy – House Offer

Unemployment Insurance

- Allows non-licensed staff to be eligible for unemployment benefits during interim months of the school year
- School districts may levy for 100% of these additional costs
- To offset the Reemployment Insurance Levy increases, eliminates the levy component of Career and Technical Education (CTE) revenue.
- House Final Offer

E-12 EDUCATION BILL

Student Support Personnel Aid - House Offer

Creates a New Student Support Personnel Aid (House offer)

- Funding for districts and charters to hire additional support personnel positions
- $100 per pupil for school districts and charter schools
 - minimum of $50,000 for small school districts
- For cooperatives and intermediate school districts, $6 per pupil of the member school districts
 - * Note: these allowances are estimates based on the House Omnibus Bill
- Session
 - Governor: $77M proposal
 - House: $320M proposal
 - Senate: No comparable provision

Local Option Revenue (LOR) – Equalization

- Beginning in FY24, the first tier LOR equalization is changed to use an equalizing factor of 154.79% of the state average referendum market value per resident pupil (RMV / RPU)
 - Based on 3rd prior year pupils similar to LTFM and debt equalization
- Second tier equalization remains at current law
- $66.3M in property tax relief for school districts and additional LOR aid to charter schools in FY24/25

Joint Powers Districts – Long Term Facilities Maintenance (LTFM)

- Allow joint powers districts to take part in the LTFM program
- Expand the cooperative and joint powers use of the LTFM program to include increased leases costs attributed to LTFM programs completed by landlords
- Allows cooperative or joint powers districts to specify which member district shares the project costs with exception of debt service payments

Cooperative and Joint Powers Districts – Lease Levy Authority

- Expands the use of the lease levy authority to cooperative units and joint powers districts within the $65 dollar cap
- Allows for the intermediate, cooperative unit, or joint powers district to specify which member district will levy for lease costs
- Allows districts to levy for a proportionate share of deferred maintenance expenditures for a district-owned building, or site lease to a cooperative unit or joint powers district

School Building Bond Agricultural Credit

- Beginning with taxes payable in 2024 (FY25), the credit percent is increased from 70% to 85%
 - Applies to all school general debt service levies
 - $21.8 M property tax relief FY25

Drought/Agriculture/Broadband Omnibus BILL (HF 3420)
